INTRO C | C | C | C | F | F | 3x

VERSE 1 C F C
 Our rest is in heaven, our rest is not here
 F Am7 Gsus G
 Then why should we tremble when trials draw near?
 C F Am
 Be still and remember the worst that can come
 F Am7 Gsus G
 But shortens our journey and hastens us home

CHORUS 1 G Am7 F2 G Am7 F G
 Christ our glory, Christ our hope, Christ our King forevermore
 C F Am
 Be still and remember the worst that can come
 F Am7 Gsus C | C | C | C | F | F
 But shortens our journey and hastens us home

VERSE 2 C F C
 No hours should be wasted on seeking our joy
 F Am7 Gsus G
 And placing our hope in what will be destroyed
 C F Am
 We look for a city that hands have not raised
 F Am7 Gsus G
 We long for a country that sin has not stained

CHORUS 2 G Am7 F2 G Am7 F G
 Christ our glory, Christ our hope, Christ our King forevermore
 C F Am
 We look for a city that hands have not raised
 F Am7 Gsus C | C
 We long for a country that sin has not stained

VERSE 3      Am7                      Dm7
 Though trouble and anguish increase all the more
                  F                                      Gsus      G
 They cannot compare to the glory in store
                  Am7                                      Dm7      C/E
 Come joy or come sorrow, whatever befalls
                  F                                      Gsus
 The light of the Savior will outshine them all

CHORUS 3      G              Am7      F2                      G              Am7              F      G
